

A 5 1/2 year course (including 1 year compulsory internship) in which students are taught subjects like Human Anatomy, Human Physiology, Homeopathic Materia Medica, Organon and Homeopathic Philosophy, Homeopathic Pharmacy, Pathology, Bacteriology and Parasitology, Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, Organon and Homeopathic Philosophy, Surgery, general and systemic, including ENT, Ophthalmology, Dental, Orthopaedics with Homeopathic Therapeutics, Obstetrics and Gynaecology with homeopathic therapeutics, Practise of medicine, including Paediatrics, Dermatology, Psychiatry with homeopathic therapeutics, preventive and social medicine, case taking and repertorisation etc.,

Future Prospects :

After the completion of the BHMS Course, the candidate can pursue a Postgraduate Diploma in Homeopathic Medicine & Surgery. Can work as a private practitioner, a faculty member in a medical university.