

Minimum Requirements to be fulfilled to give Eamcet 2012 Examination

1.

Students applying for EAMCET 2012 should be citizens of India or Persons of Indian Origin.

2.

Only residents of the State of Andhra Pradesh are allowed to take EAMCET 2012.

3.

EAMCET candidates are required to pass their class XII with physics, chemistry and maths from the Board of Intermediate Education, Andhra Pradesh or any other recognized board.

4.

In case the previous criteria is not met, alternately, candidates should have passed the Diploma in Engineering exam conducted by the State Board of Technical Education and Training, Andhra Pradesh or any other recognized examination by the State Board of Technical Education and Training, Andhra Pradesh.

5.

The candidate should be a minimum of 17 years of age, though no specific upper limit has been stated by the authorities